Walter, Mr SIDEBOARD with BEVELLED MIRROR, DIN- Philip Arnhold, and many members o both the home and foreign staff of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank. After the service, the coffin, which was covered with beautiful wreaths, was taken to the crematorium at Golder's Green. The re-

chief mourners were Lady Cameron. Mr

DUELLING UNDER DIF-FICULTIES.

Saigon Official and Legal Luminary Outwit Police.

New Year's Day, at Saigon, witnessed a sensational duel between a local official. bearing the rank of Governor and a prominent member of the bar there, they having had a difference which, in their opinion, could only be settled with pistols. The high rank of the official led to the police doing their best to prevent the duel. by shadowing the antagonists who did their

The amusement aroused by this game of hide and seek drew away public attention from the festivities of the season and the British naval visit, Just as the police were congratulating themselves that they had baulked the duellists, the latter quiet-ly stole out to a distant spot and had their encounter. Neither duellist was hurt by the shots exchanged.

By far the most determined and serious of the three cases is one which took place at Yaumati, where shots were actually fired and whereby one of the robbers lost his life, and a European police officer was severely wounded. It appears that on Thursday evening at 10 p.m. five men entered a shop at 43, Kennedy Street, Yaumati, each being armed with a revolver. They pointed the weapons at the master of the shop and his two fokis, then tied them together, and put them on a bed out of the way. Thereupon the robbers demanded the key of the safe from the master, and, having obtained it, they opened the safe and took out a sum of $4,300, which included three $500 notes, several $100 notes, and a large quantity of subsidiary coin. In addition to this, they broke open the till in the shop counter and extracted about $60 in small money, as well as a silver watch. Having completed their work, the thieves ran away in the direction of the Yaumati Police Station. An alarm was given, and Lance-Sergt. Mills was soon among those in pursuit of the robbers. Turkoy has instructed its Customs him in the abdomen, causing him to drop on the spot. P. C. Hedge was also on the track of the men by this time, and ly brought across to Hongkong, but the robber soon expired. Lance-Sergt. Mills was taken to hospital immediately, and his case seemed hopeless, but after a time he rallied somewhat, and now seems to be in a slightly less serious condition. As the result of the affray, five arrests have been made, but so far it seems that the identity of only two of the robbers can be sworn to. On the same night as the Yaumati affair an armed robbery occurred at Shaukiwan. At 11-30 p.m. five men, each with a revolver and a chopper in his possession, boarded a junk in the harbour tied up the members of the crew, and stol > victims from getting rapidly ashore. Couse-quently several hours clapsed before the matter was reported, and the police were thus greatly handicapped in endeavouring to trace the thieves. The third case occurred at about 3.30 o'clock this morning at No 7, Kwai-wa Lane. As is customary during the Chinese New Year celebrations, the door of the house was open, and it appears that the rebbers, seven or eight in number, got inside by calmly walking in, presenting themselves to the lady of the house, and offering their New Year greetings. Once inside, they produced knives, and soon got hold of about $1,000 in money, jewelley to the value of 820, and, a share ticket in the Canton- not out with 68 to his credit. #### RAMBLING NOTES.

The Union Church Literary Club is still force in the social and intellectual world of the Colony. On Tuesday night Mr W. Draw Braidwood, head master of the Ellis Kadoorie School, gave an illustrated lecture on the "Highlands and Islands of Scotland" before a splendid attendance of members and friends. The lecturer, who is himself a Scot, and can speak Scotch, (but I have my doots about his Gaelic) gave a most charming and lucid account of the beauties of Scotland. His knowledge of the various places which he touched on was that of the traveller who had gone far and seen nature at her best, His several stories were exceedingly good and essentially Scotch, and for the benefit of those who were not there I quote the following :-"The application of the Clan name of Macintosh to a waterproof has sometimes given rise to odd mistakes, real or invented. as when an Englishman who had got out at one of the stations on the Callendar and Oban railway, is reported to have come back to the carriage from which he had descended, and into which four or five stalwart natives had meantime ontered whom he asked "Did you see a black Macintosh here?" "Na," was the answer, "We're a' red Macgregors," I have heard it whispered that Mr Braidwood has been asked to repeat the lecture at the Y.M.C.A. in the near future.

This week has been one of strenuous activity on the part of those candidates who sought election to represent the ratepayers of Hongkong on the Sanitary Board. Now the whirl is over and we know who is going to look after our interests for another term. To my mind Mr Shelton, Hooper's seat was never in any doubt, for he has done a good deal of hard work, combined with straight talking, and in re-electing him once more a wise choice has been made. There is one affliction, however, which we gladly miss at election time out here. Mr Editor, and that is the " suffraggetes," about whom the Home papers have had so much to say lately. They would certainly have added colour to the matterof-fact election, besides giving the local press something new in the reporting world, but we are better without them. .

I visited Harmston's circus at Causeway Bay one night last week, and as I predicted good business for the "Colonel" when his show did arrive, I was not surprised to find that the seating accommodation was taxed to its utmost. The programme was of the very best and latest, and so long as the management maintain the same standard of excellence their stay in Hongkong. should be a most profitable one. The programme, however, might be cut down somewhat us it is rather late before one gets back to Hongkong. It was a bit got somewhat torn with the strong wind from Singapore. To be strick en down as she was within five days of re. turning to the Colony was the saddest blow that could have been measured out by malignant fate. Let us hope that the Celestial new year has nothing but pleasant things in store for her.

What with the Bijou Troubadours, Harmston's Circus, the Y.M.C.A. Parliament, the Bal Marque, the Geisha performances, the Samitary Board Election, the early morning "clocking" at the Race Course, and Chinese New Year -- my puir, auld held is in a veritable whirl this week. Hongkong, for all its cry of "rotten business," is a verra giddy place these days.

My very staid contemporary, the London and China Empress, occasionally unbands and tells a funny story. The other day it said that a new code-book had been introduced for purposes of communication between the mother country and her Colo nies, and owing to a misunderstanding o Victoria Buildings, on Thursday, January message dispatched in the language of the 28 states :- The Directors have how to old code was translated with the aid of the new one. #### ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH KOWLOON.

Accounts for Last Year.

The Acting Treasurer and Secretary, the Rov. A. J. Stevens, Chaplain, reports :-In presenting the accompanying accounts, the Chaplain, as acting treasurer, begs to call attention to the following points. The subscrintions and donations show an increase of $170 (or, with the military contribution, $220) upon the provious year's total; the Chaplain's donations of "fees," and Baptismal and Churching offerings, are more than in 1907, by $72.80; and the offertories' total exceeds that of 1907, by $42.18 (or, taking the church maintenance offertories only, the increase is $62). But in "contributions for sittings" the receipts for 1908, fall short of those for 1907 by $227.50; of which sum, however, $80 (owing at December 31st last) may yet be contributed. Moreover, whilst 1907 began with a balance on the working account of $287.09, only $59.49 of this sum remained to be carried forward to 1908. The expenditures (apart from furnishing fund and special offertory disbursements) were over $60 less in 1908 than in 1907. We are, after all, thankful that the year's accounts close with a small balance in favour, ($28.76 on Working account, or with "seat rents" for 1909 in advance, and the trifle left of the furnishing fund, $45.72 in all). For about half a year, the accounts showed a month's expense (more or less) in arrears to the Treasurer, but Sir Paul Chater's donation (which he kindly proposed to increase had a larger amount been needed to avert a delicit) settled all liabilities so far as 1908 was concerned Other liabilities, in connection with the Chaplain's departure for Home, on the termination of his three years' engagement, are being dealt with by special anneal of the lay-members of the Vestry. The Chaplain tenders hearty thanks to all donors, subscribers, seatholders, and other contributors to the Church funds during 1908. To the St. John's Cathedral Church Body for their grant of half the stipend. To the Bishop of Victoria for 3 sermons at St. Andrew's. To the following clergy (who assisted the Chaplain, or took his place at St. Andrew's when he was engaged at the Cathedral) :- Roys, G. A. Bunbury, A. Dallas Ennis, C.F., and A. D Stewart, (each, thrice); Rev. J. H. France (twice) · Ven. Archdeacen Banister, and Revs. A. T. Johnson, T. Sherwood Jones, and L. G. Jones, R.N. (each once) during 1908. To Miss Rooks, whose honorary labours as organist, Sunday School teacher, &c., received a fitting mark of appreciation when, on her departure for Home in November, she was presented with a tea service, a rose bowl, and a pair of howers holders (all in silver), and photographs of the exterior and interior of St. Andrew's, -subscribed for by the congregation and friends of the Church. To Miss Lesbirel, her efficient successor, as organist and Sunday School teacher. To the laymembers of the Vestry, for their support and help. To past and present teachers in the Sanday School; of whom Miss Hume, and Messrs . Bone and Ford, have left the Colony since the last report; whilst Misses Lesbirel, Yowkey, M. Little, and E Packham, and Messrs. Barlow, Benson, B Fielder, Hirst, Clayson and Bennett are still with us as teachers. To Mr B. Fielder, also, for much belp as sidesman, &c. T all who have given, and are giving, help in the choir. To the many friends who provided and arranged floral decorations, at Raster, Whitsuntide, and Christmas, and flowers for the Holy Table, week by week, since Miss Rooks' departure. To the editors of the four daily newspapers of the Colony, for inserting Church amouncements | Friday 8 p.m. - Christian Endeavour Soweek by week. To Sir Paul Chater, for the loan of plants at festivals, for his kind services as honorary auditor of the accounts, and for his most munificent gift, during the past year, of a Chaplain's residence, which is fast approaching completion. The number of Communicants for 1968 was 286. There were 48 administrations.

VISITORS AT HOTELS.

Baptisms during 1906 numbered 16.

CURED BY TWO SETS OF CUTICURA REMEDIES

"My trouble started with swelling in my right hand, which became red and very painful and irritating. This swell-ing spread gradually up the arm until it reached the clbow. It is impossible for me to give any idea of the agony I went through during the three years that this eczema continued. I tried first one remedy and then another, only too glad to test anything that my friends suggested. Nothing seemed to be of the least good. I went to a doctor for four weeks in the provinces, where I was living at the time, and the treatment he put me under was as ineffectual as the rest. I was almost in despair. One day I happened to eatch sight of an advertisement of Cutieura Remedies, and there I read of a case of cozema having been cured by the use of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Cintment, and Cuticura Resolvent Pills. The case was so similar to my own that I thought I would at least make one more try to get my arm right. I bought the whole treatment of the chemist, and I persevered with it for a week. By that time the improvement was apparent to any one, and the relief I felt myself was great. I should not have believed it possible for any remedy to afford such comfort in so short a time. My experience with the other remedies for eczema - and I should think I tried them all—enables me to appreciate Cuticura to the full. By the doctor's orders I was keeping my arm in a sling for many months, but the sling was soon dispensed with when I started with Cuticura. I persevered with Cuticura Scop, Dintment, and Pills for about a couple of months, using in all two complete treatments, and I can tell you candidly and heartily that I was cured. I have occasion to have great faith in Cuticura in skin ailments, not only because of the great good it has done me, but because of the benefit I know has accrued from its use in other cases. Mr. T.S. Gillard, 3, Hetley Road, Shepherd's Bush, London, Nov. 19, '00,' Cuticura Remedies are said throughout the world.
